NOTE OF UNITED STATES INSISTENT AND EMPHATIC

If Germany Declines to Satisfy United States, It Is Said Diplomatic Relations Will Be Broken—Note Is Very Brief.

AMERICANS IN GERMANY ARE WARNED TO BE READY
London, June 4.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam says: "A message received here from Berlin states that the American colony in Berlin has been warned of the possibility of the severance of diplomatic relations between Germany and the United States may be broken off in forty-eight hours and that the Americans should hold themselves in readiness to leave Germany."

Washington, June 4.—President Wilson read to his cabinet today the draft of a note to be sent to Germany demanding, in effect, adherence to the principles of international law in the German conduct of maritime warfare as affecting neutrals. Comparatively brief, but described as insistent and emphatic, the communication will be cabled not later than Monday.

The cabinet approved the note as a whole. Minor changes in phraseology may be made to make it conform with previous expressions of diplomatic correspondence of the United States. The principle is fixed and unalterable, that the United States must not indefinitely and promptly Germany intends to ignore visit and search rights and continue to disregard maritime warfare which have governed for centuries will be followed.

The alternative course is not stated, but it is generally known that the United States in the event of an unfavorable reply will discontinue diplomatic relations with Germany.

German Contentions Irrelevant.
The note sets aside all contentions of the German reply except one—whether the Lusitania was armed—and restates the position taken by the United States previously that the Lusitania after official investigation by competent inspectors, sailed from an American port with a full complement of arms. The German contention that the Lusitania was not armed is not attempted resistance, but was torpedoed without warning.

While there was a general reaction to discuss the contents of the new note, the impression prevailed in official quarters that the document was so plain, particularly in that it does not invite discussion on any of the points raised by Germany. The communication was said simply that attention to the American note of May 13 that the Lusitania was unarmed and explained the view that the Lusitania must have been informed on this phase of the case.

The arrival of a communication from the German government today expressing regret for the attack on the American steamer Gulf Stream, and offering indemnity as soon as a claim is presented, and details arranged, and make further promise to carry on consideration of facts which the United States may have on the dropping of bombs by German aircraft upon the American steamer Cushing, made no special anxiety to carry messages in the new note to Germany.

Secretary Bryan conferred with President Wilson before the cabinet meeting began. Counselor Robert Lansing, who had prepared some of the memoranda on which the new note is based, was invited by the president to sit at the cabinet table and advise on points of international law.

Members of Cabinet Agreed.
The meeting lasted two hours and at its conclusion, all the members, it was said, had agreed to the principle of the note.

The sending to Emperor William by Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, of the note, was made in the German colonial office, and the special envoy to carry messages from the embassy and to outline the American point of view would not be the dispatch of the note.

In German quarters here, it is expected that the note will be met with indifference until Gerhard has arrived and explained the situation. This, it is expected, will take some time, as the boat on which the envoy sailed would not bring him to Denmark much sooner than his scheduled arrival.

AFFIDAVIT MAKER CAN'T BE FOUND.

New York, June 4.—Department of justice agents today began an investigation here into the antecedents of Edward Stahl, a German who made an affidavit submitted to the state department by German agents, that the steamship Lusitania carried guns. The representative of the department went to Stahl's boarding place, where he was not there nor had he been seen there yesterday. His trunk and personal effects were made up and were packed in preparation for departure. The agents received a letter saying that he had discovered.

"We have got what we wanted," said Stahl to his wife, who was working for German agents, and he left for the German embassy.

ICE CREAM VENDOR TAX COMMITTEE ALSO DECIDES TO PUT VENDORS OF ICE CREAM CROCK TO CHILDREN OUT OF BUSINESS.

Thousands of dollars of additional revenue will be secured by the city if the revised tax list agreed on Friday by the tax committee is adopted by general council. Many of the business licenses were doubled, others were materially increased and in no case was there a reduction. Several items were stricken from the list and licenses will not be issued for certain classes of business.

In carrying out their program for a sweeping revision of the tax ordinance, the committee Friday voted unanimously to strike from the list the item of pistols, which means that the sale of pistols in the city of Atlanta, which has been a long-standing practice, will be prohibited. The committee also decided to place the tax on the sale of ice cream crocks to children out of business.

No More Pistols.
Chairman E. H. Inman supported his proposal that the committee vote unanimously in favor of the proposition. Several members of general council, who are members of the committee relative to the sale of pistols, stated they intended the move and would support the committee report. The committee also took steps to put out all proper notices at the city hall.

Lighting Rods Also Affected.
The committee also decided to increase the license from $30 to $100. The committee took the position that the license for the children, who are usual customers of these people, in the future the clerk will not issue permits for these vendors.

Discussion of the License.
Discussion was had of the promoters' license, which was increased to $50. This license was increased to $100. The committee voted unanimously to increase the license for non-resident corporations to $100. The committee voted unanimously to increase the license for non-resident corporations to $100.

APPEALING REPLY TO MEXICAN CHIEF'S REPLY TO THE PRESIDENT'S NOTE.

"Appreciative, Friendly and Serene" Will Be Tone of Mexican Chief's Reply to the President's Note.

CARRANZA IS HOPING TO SECURE RECOGNITION
He Takes Wilson's Note as Tacit Hint That He Is Man Best Fitted to Assume the Ascendency in Mexico.

Vera Cruz, June 4.—"Appreciative, friendly and serene," such will be the tone of General Carranza's reply to President Wilson's note. After carefully considering the note, Carranza concluded that it contains nothing other than hopeful necessities for the Mexican problem without foreign aid. How this is to be done nobody professes to know, except General Carranza himself, and he expresses the opinion that his intended government of Mexico City soon will place the constitutionalists in a better position to be recognized by Washington.

No Harsh Action Feared.
As the note has been read more and more by Carranza officials and the cabinet, it has created a feeling that President Wilson intends no harsh action toward Mexico.

General Carranza's Reply.
It is understood that the reply will be a long and steady program, by the constitutionalists, indicating an early return to the normal state of affairs. Carranza will point out that American recognition would greatly expedite the return of the country to normal.

SUCCESS SLOTON BRIAN STATE SUPERINTENDENT WILL BE ELECTED TO SUCCEED PROFESSOR W. M. SLATON THIS MORNING.

That the time will come when the high schools of Atlanta will be open from 9 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock at night, was the statement made last night by R. J. Quinn, president of the Atlanta board of education, at the graduating exercises of the Girls' High and English Commercial High schools, held at the Atlanta Hotel.

This will be done, he said, in order to give opportunity to those who are obliged to work and for that reason are not able to attend school during the regular hours.

Seventy-four girls from the G. H. S. and fifty-four from the E. C. H. S. received diplomas.

The girls, every one of whom was dressed exactly alike, in white costumes, carrying pink roses, presented a very pleasing tableau when the curtain of an easy program by Miss Quinn was closed in the singing of a chorus, a waltz from Faust. This was very pleasing, the girls singing extremely well. A "Serenade" by Miss Quinn, by the entire class, was also very good.

Essays Are Read.
Two essays were given, Miss Culbertson, of the Girls' High, and Miss Quinn, of the English Commercial High, read their essays on "The Future of the Public School System."

The address of the evening was delivered by R. J. Quinn, president of the board of education, who spoke of the need of new high schools in Atlanta.

Mr. Quinn also spoke of the recent changes in the high school system and of changes that are anticipated by the board of education.

The diplomas were also delivered by Mr. Quinn, who spoke of the need of new high schools in Atlanta.

Miss Cora Sells opened the exercises with an address of welcome.

Major Quinn's speech follows: "With the invitation to speak for a few moments on the occasion of this evening, I should like to speak of the public school system."

Seven Vessels Sunk by Undersea Boats—Danish and Swedish Ships Among the Victims.

Palmouth, June 4.—The British steamer Inkom, from New York to London, was torpedoed at 4:26 o'clock this morning 43 miles southeast of Lizard Head. The crew was landed here by the Norwegian steamer Wenda.

No submarine had been observed when the ship was torpedoed, but it was returned to the ship, hoping to have her. They noticed, however, the periscope of a submarine which charged a second torpedo, completing the work of destruction.

The Inkom was a 3,000-ton ship, built at Glasgow in 1901 and was owned by the Gulf Transport Line of Liverpool.

TWO SHIPS SUNK OFF SCOTLAND.
Kirkwall, June 4.—The crews of two vessels which are declared to have been torpedoed by German submarines were landed here today—fifty-three men belonging to the Wilson Line steamer Iona, bound from Middleburgh for Montreal, and nine from the German fishing steamer Chrysothraus.

The Iona was sunk twenty-four miles west of the Mull of Galloway, being torpedoed after her crew had left her. The Chrysothraus was sent to the bottom by a single salvo of torpedoes, one of the Orkney Islands.

In each case it is alleged that the submarine attacked the boats as they were being launched. Two of the Iona's crew were seriously and two slightly wounded.

TRAWLER SUNK BY SUBMARINE.
Lewestoft, Sweden, June 4.—The crew of a Lewestoft trawler were landed here today. They say their vessel was stopped in the North Sea three days evening by a German submarine. The trawler was ordered into the boat after which the trawler was sunk by torpedoes.

DANISH STEAMER SUNK TO THE BOTTOM.
Stavanger, Norway, June 4.—(Via Oslo.) A Danish steamer, the Skjold, with a cargo of coal, from Burnslund, Scotland, for Copenhagen, was torpedoed and sunk in the North Sea. The vessel was bound for Copenhagen and was carrying a cargo of coal.

The Skjold was built in 1910 and was 1,100 tons. She was owned by the Danish government.

DANISH SCHOONER SUNK BY SUBMARINE.
London, June 4.—The crew of a Danish schooner, the Skjold, was landed here today. They say their vessel was stopped in the North Sea three days evening by a German submarine. The schooner was ordered into the boat after which the schooner was sunk by torpedoes.

WILL THE MAYOR AND COUNCIL AGAIN LICENSE LAW-BREAKING?

"Jesus said unto them---'If ye were blind, ye would have no sin; but now ye say, 'WE SEE'; therefore your sin remaineth.' "-----John 9:41

Law-breaking breeds insecurity.
Insecurity brings lack of confidence.
Lack of confidence means loss of business.
Hence the break between blind-tigers and bankers.
Liquor, wine and beer will no more be seen at the banquets and meetings of the Georgia Bankers' Association.

money by the sale of whiskey, wine and beer during the coming six months?

A thief's need for money is no excuse for burglary.

Is it possible, that the Mayor and Council will again refuse to heed the respectful request of tax-paying citizens that these public officials, as their representatives, do not drag the name of Atlanta in the mud by making her and each of her citizens parties to breaking the law, partners with blind-tigers by licensing them?

The injunction has not been used by us here because we have hoped that the city, acting through the proper officers, would put an end to law breaking where those engaged in it refused to obey the law.

We have not wished to advertise to the world that—

The Mayor and Council of the Capital of Georgia compel private citizens to protect themselves from law-breaking brewers and distillers, and the retailers of their poisons, by appealing to the courts.

is there, if all else fails.
